Valery.

Your country has attacked every part of Ukraine with an invasion force of 250 000 troops.

Your president, your foreign minister and your ambassador have stated publicly that the intention is to depose the "nazi" government of Ukraine and to return Ukraine to Russia where it historically belongs, and that Ukraine has no right to sovereignty.

Your state-owned media RIA published (in error) a story of righteous victory and the successful restoration of the Russian empire on February 26th. A story that was later deleted, but has been archived by search engines all over the world.

I hope your statements about "the trials that befell our Ukrainian friends", that "collective reason will prevail", and the "conflict that has dragged on for 8 years" reflect that you simply don't know what your leaders are doing...

Dear friends, fellow randonneurs!

Russian randonneurs and I personally perceive with pain in our hearts the trials that befell our Ukrainian friends. And we very much hope that collective reason will prevail and negotiations will lead to a peaceful resolution of this conflict that has dragged on for 8 years.

The Randonneurs Brotherhood

should remain an example of peaceful people's diplomacy and set an example to politicians. We must fight to preserve our friendship.

With deep respect and sorrow,
Valery Komochkov,

Russian randonneurs
